

On A Hill Far Away (The Old Rugged Cross)

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame,
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it some day for a crown.

O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
Has a wond'rous attraction for me;
For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above
To bear it to dark Calvary.

So I'll cherish ...

In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see,
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.

So I'll cherish ...

To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then he'll call me one day to my home far away
Where his glory for ever I'll share.

So I'll cherish ...
